600 hear mayor candidates debate issues

who is running for city's top job, and in the background is incumbent Mayor Paul Schulz. The forum was sponsored by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

A huge crowd, estimated at 600 people, was in attendance Monday night for the "Mayor's Forum," sponsored by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

The event was moderated by Leo Konzen, a local attorney. Before the event began, the order in which candidates answered a particular question and the order in which questions were asked, was determined by lots.

CANDIDATES IN attendance included Mayor Paul Schulz, the incumbent; Von Dee Cruse, Granite City Township assessor, and Mac Warfield, Granite City superintendent of streets. The fourth candidate, Ed Jelf, was unable to attend because of his work schedule.

Schulz said if re-elected, he plans to continue his current method of handling city affairs. "I plan to continue the policy of firm leadership combined with cooperation, not confrontation," he said. "I expect the growth and revitalization in the city to continue."

"During the past four years, one of the most serious economic depressions ever experienced by our city, happened. Factories closed, jobs were lost and our tax base eroded. At the same time, federal assistance to local governments diminished."

"THIS EMERGENCY was recognized and it was determined that to continue our high level of city services and at the same time to hold the line on taxes, would take the full cooperation of the elected officials and employees. This has been accomplished."

Schulz noted that despite the problems in many areas of the city, there also have been good developments in the past four years. "The proof that our efforts have been successful is the recognition that Granite City has received on an international level, by the substantial investment of Nippon Steel made in Granite City Steel," he said.

"On a national and state level, National Food Stores is opening one of its largest stores. A.O. Smith is opening as a major employer and the Terminal Railroad has moved its headquarters here."

"ON A LOCAL level, our building permits totalled more than $10 million and our program of vigorously enforcing our building code continues."

"I pledge to our citizens to continue to work to improve the quality of life in our city, and at the same time, to provide the best service at the lowest possible cost."

Cruse said he thinks the most important assets he has to offer to the city are his commitment to the city and his leadership abilities. "...the expedient politician must have deeply felt convictions and a grasp of the ideals and goals of his society and an ability to mark a path to those goals."

"I MUST BE able to communicate with those convictions and ideals to the people, even while he ministers to their more immediate demands. For it is easy for people faced with the struggle for existence in their daily lives to forget their ideals and become concerned with their own needs."

"I believe the time calls for a reaffirmation of faith and purpose and a vigorous new leadership for the people of Granite City. Quality leadership in the city hall must be our town's first concern. Leadership that will prevent decay, leadership that proves by action that its cause is just, its motive pure. Leadership that has proven itself by honorable

Madison votes to enforce stop order against Moss despite federal lawsuit

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

The Madison City Council authorized its attorney Wednesday night to take necessary action to enforce a stop order against Madison businessman Gerald R. Moss, despite a $3.3 million federal lawsuit

Moss has filed alleging harassment against his business by acting Madison Mayor Thomas Gordon, retired mayor Mike Sasyk and the city's building inspector, John Dutko.

Gordon read a prepared statement to the councilmen and a capacity crowd of residents at Wednesday night's meeting.

GORDON SAID, "I am instructing our attorney to contact the FBI as soon as possible to arrange for a meeting to voluntarily give statements regarding the untrue allegations made by Mr. Moss and challenge him to do the same. Further, we will request that Mr. Hess, the U.S. attorney, to issue a decision before the election, regarding the complaint filed by Mr. Moss."

He continued, "It is my impression that Maxine Tawney has been trying to intimidate me, by her public comments, into a so called public forum and that Gerald Moss, is now trying to intimidate the city officers and its employees from discharging their duties by filing this alleged civil rights action in federal court. I would like to point out that Maxine Tawney and Gerald Moss have an employer and employee relationship. This raises the question in my mind that Mr. Moss and Mrs. Tawney have used their positions to disrupt the order of the city election for their own individual gains and purposes to the detriment of the citizens of Madison."

"I leave this with each of you to draw your own conclusions, especially in light of Mr. Moss moving another railroad onto the Ill-Fac Coast Transportation Co., premises in violation of the "stop order" on Sunday, knowing that most city and state employees do not work."

"I WILL issue further comments

Walker leaving Urban League

Willie F. Walker, executive director of the Madison County Urban League, Inc., has announced that he has accepted a position as president of the Urban League in Dayton, Ohio.

Walker has been with the Urban League in Madison County for seven years and was the organization's first permanent director. He has been with the Urban League movement for 12 years. Prior to his employment with the Madison County Urban League, he was an instructor at Venice-Lincoln Technical School and has served on the Madison School Board.

A SEARCH COMMITTEE, chaired by John Sterbenz of the Olin Corporation, will coordinate efforts to locate a replacement for Walker. Candidates must be certified by the National Urban League. The local organization selects the replacement through a screening process of those persons certified by the national organization.

Walker, 43, a native of Madison County and a Godfrey resident, will be replaced during the search for a new executive director by Brenda Walker McCain, coordinator of Employment and Community Services for the Urban League. She has been with the Urban League for 12

I-270 lanes closing

Commuters who use Interstate 270 still recall vividly the recent rush hour traffic backups caused by lane closures for repairs. For those who don't miss those "good old days," we have bad news.

The Illinois Department of Transportation has announced that I-270 will again undergo reconstruction from the Chain of Rocks Canal Bridge to the Mississippi River, starting Monday.

LANE CLOSURES will be necessary during much of the work as pipe underdrains, pressure grouting and pavement patching will require overnight closing of some lanes. This phase of the construction should be completed by July 1.

The pavement work will be done during daylight hours only and should be completed by Sept. 1, IDOT announced.

The work will be done by C.D. Peters Construction Co. of Granite City.

"MOTORISTS ARE encouraged to seek alternate routes, if possible, to minimize traffic congestion in this area," IDOT advises.

SKY-BOUND WATCH. Rhonda Engel, left, and her cousin, Darla Sior, keep careful watch of their kites during the weekend at Worthen Park as they participate in the Granite City Joycees' annual kite flying contest. The two were awarded second and third-place trophies, respectively, in the 12 to 16-year-old division. Elizabeth Williams, who won first place in the same division, also was presented trophies for the best homemade kite entered and the highest flying kite of the day.

Local attorneys to form partnership

Granite City attorneys William Brandt and Irvin C. Shibe Jr. plan to form a partnership with retiring Madison County Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand, effective April 15.

According to Slate, he and Brandt currently are independent practitioners of law. He hopes that the partnership will enable him and Brandt to alleviate their caseloads with the help of Hildebrand.

Hildebrand will retire from the bench on April 15. He has served as an associate judge since Sept. 8, 1980, and was in private practice before being appointed.

An informational document charging Robert E. Doepeke, 45, of Maryland Heights, Mo., with armed robbery in connection with last Friday alleged robbery attempt at Midtown Pharmacy, 2057 Johnson Road, was issued Monday through the Madison County state's attorney's office to Granite City police.

Doepeke was taken before Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand at 8 p.m. Monday and the preliminary hearing on the charge was scheduled to be held in Edwardsville.

BOND WAS set at $200,000, a mittimus was issued and Doepeke was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Pontoon annexes property

By MICHAEL MOORE
For the Press-Record

The Pontoon Beach Village Board voted Tuesday night to annex a residential tract of land off Route 162 east of the Edwardsville Montessori School (formerly Stallings School) and to rezone property at 4289 Revell Lane as agricultural property.

The board discussed renters' rights after a resident of the Gaslight Walk Apartments complained that her roof had been leaking since August 1984 and finally fell in Monday.

"We have an obligation to protect the residents, regardless of the Doepeke allegedly held a woman hostage on the floor and then dragged her along with him as he moved from point to point in the store.

OFFICERS communicated with the suspect through a window, using sign language, and several minutes later the man laid the weapon on top of a counter display.

A .45-caliber automatic handgun, along with a clip containing six live and one spent cartridge casing, were recovered, it was reported.

A shot was fired at a vehicle leaving the store parking area, which was believed to have been driven by an accomplice of the alleged robber.

THE VEHICLE stolen from a nearby parking lot was later found abandoned near Johnson Road and Terrace Lane. The driver, however, still is being sought.

A suggestion was made to have the village's health inspector look at the woman's apartment.

An ordinance granting Illinois Bell rights to construct, renew and operate new and existing telephone lines in the village was approved. The ordinance may be renegotiated within 30 days if the village finds it unsatisfactory. If not renegotiated, the ordinance will be in effect until Dec. 30, 1986, Village Clerk Mary Warren explained.

The board also voted to approve the minutes and pay all bills presented.

Venice arrest results in escape attempt

The arrest of a Venice man charged with two driving infractions, resulted in the subsequent arrest of the owner of the car. The car owner, later attempted to escape.

Wikel R. Brown, 33, of 135 Robin St., Venice, was arrested at 8 p.m. Monday at the intersection of Fourth Street and Broadway, after he allegedly was driving at a high rate of speed without the car headlights on. He was charged with careless driving and driving without lights.

While booking Brown, Dale Endicott, 21, of 1419 Third St., Venice, the owner of the vehicle Brown was driving, arrived at the station and wanted to take his car.

Police told Endicott that the vehicle was being towed and asked him to leave. It was later discovered that Endicott's auto was removed before it could be towed.

Endicott was arrested at 4:45 p.m. the next day at Broadway and McKinley Avenue and charged with criminal trespass to a vehicle and disorderly conduct. While Endicott was being transported to the police station, he allegedly attempted to escape.

When the patrol car stopped at the stop sign at the bottom of the Venice viaduct, Endicott allegedly jumped out of the car and ran towards State Street.

Officers caught up with Endicott on Market Street and he was placed into custody. Endicott allegedly resisted all attempts to be placed in the squad car. He also had to be placed in the jail cell by force, according to police.

Endicott received additional charges of escape, resisting a peace officer and battery.

performance and dedication in the past and leadership that will attract other to contribute their talents to the overcoming obstacles.

"So in closing, what I've tried to say here this evening is that I do have deeply felt convictions and I do have ideals and goals for our community, and after 20 years as assessor, I am sure I have the political courage to hold office," Cruse said.

WARFIELD, EXPRESSED his concern with what he called the lack of communication between department heads and the need for a full-time mayor.

He also said he feels he has an edge on the other candidates because he is Madison County Democratic Central Committee chairman. He said his position will give him the connections the city needs with persons in the state and federal governments. These connections will help solve some of the city's larger problems such as sewer breaks, he contended.

"I think I have expressed most all of my concerns about the issues in the city of Granite City," he said. "I will be a full-time mayor, and I think I have proven that at the street department."

"THERE WILL BE an open door policy in the city of Granite City in the mayor's office. You won't have to come look for me, I'll be there."

"Before leaving tonight, I'd like to ask you to do one thing. Drive three blocks in the downtown area. If that's the way you want the city to remain, you want it to change, vote for me—I'll change it," Warfield concluded.

The mayoral candidates will meet again in a public forum Wednesday, March 20, at the Township Hall. The event, sponsored by the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society (NRS), and the Downtown Merchants' Promotion Committee, will begin at 8 p.m.

THE CANDIDATE invitations to the debate were sent in late January, according to a DNRS representative. To date, Schuler and Cruse have accepted the invitation to attend.

Unlike Monday's forum, the questions presented to the candidates on March 20 will concentrate on the problems particular to the downtown area. Members of both organizations have compiled a list of specific questions from which 15 will be selected.

"This list then will be pared down to eight questions, which will be presented to the candidates by John J. Hopkins, a local attorney. Hopkins also will act as moderator of the event."

THE FORUM will be videotaped by South-Western Cable for subsequent broadcast on the Community Access Channel.

A question-by-question accounting of the mayor's forum and each candidate's response will be given in the Sunday Press-Record/Journal.

at a press conference later this week," Gordon concluded.

Prior to Gordon's statement, Alderman William Gushleff requested permission of the council to read the allegations before the public and aldermen.

Alderman Charles Rockett asked if the city attorney was notified first before a stop order was issued against Mr. Moss.

IN RESPONSE, Casper Nighohosian said, "Before I prepared the stop order I read the zoning code of Madison, and with evidence Mr. Dufko presented, what he observed and saw taking place and in pursuant to the zoning code, I prepared the stop order."

Alderman Robert Grieve addressed the council saying, "I cannot understand this. This man is not any better than any other person. If I want to build something, I must go through proper channels. He thinks he can just do anything he wants to, I don't buy this."

Gordon said that Moss had moved one more rail car onto his property, in violation of the stop order, and he thinks a complaint can be filed.

THE CITY attorney told the aldermen he could get a temporary restraining order, but he needed council approval to enforce the stop order.

All aldermen voted in favor, with the exception of Gordon, who abstained because of his involvement in the legal action.

years in various administrative and program capacities.

Walker says his destination, Dayton, is an industrial city of 296,000 in a metropolitan area of over a million people. It shares the unemployment problems most northeastern industrial cities have experienced, particularly in the inner city areas.

HE WILL REPLACE Brenda

Blane in Dayton. She served as interim president during the search for a permanent president.

Walker will be honored at an event, sponsored by the Concerned Citizens of Alton-Godfrey at 6 p.m. Friday, March 15, at the Holiday Inn in Alton. For further information about the event, interested persons may call 1-463-1906.

Driver cited DUI, served 4 warrants

Two men were arrested and face various charges when their car was stopped at State Street and Niedringhaus Avenue at 5:50 p.m. Monday.

James O. Bush Jr., 36, of East St. Louis, the driver, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, not having a valid driver's license and driving with only one headlight. He agreed to take a breathalyzer test.

Bush also was cited on four active warrants issued by St. Clair County. In an appearance before Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand at 8 p.m. Monday, Bush pleaded guilty to the driver's license and headlight charges and was fined $150.

He entered an innocent plea to the DUI charge and bond was set at $1,000. Additional bonds amounting to $2,000 were ordered on the St. Clair County warrants.

A mittimus was issued and Bush was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville at 8:50 a.m. Tuesday.

The Bush auto initially was stopped after an officer alleged seeing a passenger in the vehicle, Jerry W. Johnson, 27, of 31 Venice Homes, Venice, committing a public nuisance in the 2600 block of State Street.

Johnson, who was in the car when it was halted, was charged with disorderly conduct.

Injured motorist charged with DUI

Danny L. Hicks, 32, of 1225 Madison Ave., Madison, was in stable condition today at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was admitted following an accident at 1:55 a.m. today.

In response to a report of an accident, an officer reported finding a 1978 auto in the middle of the street in the 1400 block of State Street.

The Granite City Fire Department rescue truck and an ambulance were summoned when a man was found lying unconscious in the front seat. The vehicle's front end had sustained heavy damage.

According to reports, Hicks' auto was traveling south on State Street and left the roadway, striking a utility pole. The vehicle apparently continued on and hit a bus stop sign, coming to a halt facing south in the middle of both lanes. It was noted.

Hicks was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

GET INTO NESCO PLANT OFFICE

A maintenance supervisor at Nesco Steel Barrel, 1801 Benton St., reported at 3 p.m. Monday that someone entered the purchasing agent's office in the main plant building and stole an electric calculator.

Also missing from the same area was a belt-type tool bag containing tools valued at $100 which belonged to an employee. Entry was gained by forcing open a door.

Valentine responds to hand-picked label

Venice Fourth Ward Alderman Victor Valentine Sr., has voiced keen disapproval to the reference of his name in the $3.3 million lawsuit filed in the United States District Court, Southern District of Illinois, by Madison businessman Gerald R. Moss against acting Madison Mayor Thomas Gordon, retired mayor Mike Sasyk and the city's building inspector, John Dutko. The lawsuit focuses on whether the city issued a "stop order" on some work Moss was doing for zoning reasons or because Moss is a supporter of John Belmont, an opponent of the acting mayor in the April 2 election.

FURTHERMORE, Moss and his attorney, J. Thomas Long, are asking the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Attorney to investigate whether Moss' constitutional rights have been violated in the matter.

The federal lawsuit states: "Mayor (Tyrone) Echols is running for mayor of Venice with plaintiff's support and is opposed by Victor Valentine. Valentine is the hand-picked candidate of Mike Sasyk," the lawsuit contends.

It is the last paragraph of the lawsuit, as published in Monday's Press-Record, to which Valentine is objecting.

VALENTINE DISCLAIMS the statements made in the lawsuit, stating, "The man (Moss) is in business in Madison and I don't know why he would have any ties with the office of the mayor of Venice or with myself, in particular, as the report said."

"He has operated a business in Madison for over 20 years and, if he is so disenchanted with Madison politics, why didn't he moved his business to Venice?"

RESPONDING to the statement "the hand-picked candidates, Gordon and Valentine, have not been so abused, nor has their person or property been threatened," Valentine stated, "About half of my signs have been destroyed, removed or damaged in the last two weeks. We found a few laying in an alley."

Commenting again about being classified as "hand-picked," Valentine commented, "I have not seen Mayor Sasyk since he left office. I believe the last time was at the time of the general election."

"I HAVE NOTHING to hide in any relationship or association with the former mayor (Sasyk) or the present acting mayor (Gordon)."

"For a fellow who is supposed to be hand-picked by someone with money, why am I down in my basement making signs for myself?"

"I also had to borrow money from a bank to finance my campaign for Venice mayor," Valentine stressed.

A TICKET to this Sunday's Pancake & Sausage Brunch sponsored by the Optimist Club of Granite City is sold to Granite City Mayor Paul Schulz, right, by Bob Brave, chairman of the event. Pancakes and sausage will be sold from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday at the Namooki Recreation Center, Amos Avenue and Pontoon Road. Tickets costing $2.50 per adult and $1.25 per child will be sold at the door. (Press-Record Photo)

ROBBER DISPLAYS KNIFE TO WOMAN

A Granite City woman walking to her car across the parking area on the south side to Bill Burns' Cafeteria, 1920 Edison Ave., was threatened by a man who displayed a knife at 6:35 p.m. Monday.

The victim said the man, described as tall and thin with dark hair and a raspy voice, approached her, but stopped a short distance.

He showed her a knife with a long, slender blade and told her to give him her purse. She began yelling for help and the would-be robber ran west across Edison Avenue into the alley between Edison and Delmar avenues.

He did not get the purse, she said.

SERVE 5 WARRANTS

Craig, 27, of 108 Abbott St., Venice, was arrested in the 700 block alley of Kirkpatrick Homes during the weekend when an officer recognized him as being sought on five active warrants, including four alleging traffic charges and one on a charge of resisting a peace officer. He was released on notice to appear for a hearing on advice of the court.

MALICIOUS VANDAL DESTROYS BICYCLES

Bicycles belonging to two youngsters were stolen from their respective homes and beaten with a heavy object, possibly a hammer, which resulted in extensive damage to the wheels, chains and frames, it was reported Monday.

The machines, probably damaged beyond repair, were taken from the homes of the Modrusic family at 2521 E. 24th St., and the Steward family at 2721 Ralph St. Both bicycles were found laying on the ground between the sidewalk and curb near the Ralph Street address, reports said.

Candidates try to unseat incumbent in Fourth Ward

Two Granite City residents will attempt to unseat incumbent Alderman Sharon Perjak in her bid for reelection in the Fourth Ward. She is being challenged by Robert D. Bell and Robert J. Malottki.

Sharon S. Perjak

The incumbent Sharon S. Perjak, 42, of 3228 Carlson Ave., is seeking her second term as Fourth Ward alderman.

A life-long resident of Granite City, Mrs. Perjak is currently employed as an office manager at Pesham, Guyton, Albers & Viets, Inc., a St. Louis architectural firm.

She attended Granite City schools and Belleville Area College. She is a member of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, the Leadership Council of Southwestern Illinois, the Madison County Mental Health Citizen's Advisory Board and the Gateway Business and Professional Women's Club.

Besides her aldermanic post, Mrs. Perjak is currently serving her third term as precinct committeeman in Precinct 20.

"The single most important issue confronting voters is electing an 'alderwoman' who can get results," Mrs. Perjak said. She added that her accomplishments in office include: remedying a 1.5 million city budget deficit without raising taxes; defeating a five percent utility tax, and serving on a committee that brought Heidman Steel here and brought back A.O. Smith Corp.

"I want to work to rebuild our community and re-establish the place of honor we once held so proudly," she said.

Mrs. Perjak has two children—Michael and Lisa.

Robert D. Bell

Challenging Mrs. Perjak is Robert D. Bell, 41, a retired captain with the city fire department. A life-long resident of Granite City, Bell attended Granite City schools and Lewis and Clark College, where he took AAS Fire Science training.

Bell previously was employed as a laborer at Granite City Steel, an inspector for McDonnell-Douglas Corp. and a machine operator for Nestle Co.

He is of the Protestant faith. Bell is also a past president of Firefighters Local 253 and immediate past treasurer of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council.

"I just want the people to know I will serve them as a full-time alderman and I promise to be alderman for the entire Fourth Ward," he said. "Since I am retired, I can make this promise and stick to that promise."

Bell and his wife Martie, reside at 175 Briarwood Lane. He has one daughter, Leigh Ann, a step-son, Wayne Teller, and a step-daughter, Cindy Perkins.

Robert J. Malottki

Also seeking election is Robert J. Malottki, 35, another life-long resident of Granite City. Malottki is currently employed as an applications coordinator for the Veterans Administration at John Cochran Hospital.

He formerly was employed as a pharmacist and manager at Reese Drug Store, Medicare-Glaser Drugs, and a research and development employee at Mallinkrodt Chemical Company and the Lewis Howe Company.

Malottki attended Granite City schools and is a graduate of Nichols State College, Thibodaux, La., where he majored in chemistry and mathematics. He also is a graduate of St. Louis College of Pharmacy, where he received a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy. Other academic training includes a programing class for microcomputers at Belleville Area College.

He is of the Catholic faith and a member of Sacred Heart parish. He is also a member of the St. Louis College of Pharmacy Alumni Association and the St. Louis Hospital Pharmacists Society.

Malottki said he thinks major campaign issues include relieving drainage problems, obtaining funds for installation of sidewalks and curbs in North Granite and the Melrose addition, development of maintenance programs for the cleaning and repair of alleys, streets and sidewalks, providing better city services for less tax dollars and providing a larger tax base to relieve the heavy tax burden on homeowners.

Malottki is married to the former Karen Raye Thomas. They have two children, David and Bobby. They reside at 3107 Yale Drive.

James (Jim) F. Jeffries Sr. is trying to unseat incumbent Carl Macios in the April 2 election for Nameoki Township assessor. Both are running on a slate with other candidates.

Carl Macios

A member of the Township Improvement Party, Carl Macios has served as Nameoki Township assessor for 12 years and is a Certified Illinois Assessing Official. Prior to becoming the assessor, he served on the Nameoki Town Board of Trustees one year.

Macios says he sees no main campaign issues in the race for assessor. "I will continue schooling beyond my certification by the state of Illinois to help me in becoming a more in-depth, qualified appraiser and I will continue to keep the multiplier as near to 1.0 as possible," he stated. "The multiplier for the 1984 tax year will be a negative multiplier of 0.9797."

Macios, 49, of 73 Cambridge Drive, is a lifetime resident of the township. He is employed as a cost engineer at McDonnell-Douglas Corporation in St. Louis. He previously worked as a consulting engineer for Sverdrup & Parcel and as a design engineer for Emerson Electric.

He is a Granite City High School graduate and attended the Missouri School of Mines (University of Missouri, Rolla) with a major in mechanical engineering.

In addition to his position with the township, Macios is a past member of the Granite City School Board, having served as president and secretary in the 10 years he was on the board.

Macios is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Elks' Lodge 1063, Triangle Fraternity for Engineers and Architects and a charter member of Parkview School PTA.

He and his wife, JoAnn (Margulen) have six children and four grandchildren.

James Jeffries Sr.

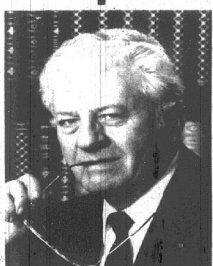

Running as a member of the Citizens' Action Party, James (Jim) F. Jeffries Sr. is a real estate broker with Century 21, Royce Realty, in Granite City. Prior to that, he worked as a superintendent and foreman for Granite City Steel Company for 23 years.

If elected, Jeffries pledges "absolute fairness and uniformity in establishing fair market value, the basis for all assessments and real estate taxes."

"Entirely too many appeals to the

CARL MACIOS

JAMES JEFFRIES SR.

Board of Review indicates the presently-applied methods of determining market value are not working," he stated. "Older people are being victimized, taxes are continually being raised while fair market value is static and declining."

Jeffries, 65, of 2425 Roney Drive, was born in Chaffee, Mo., but has lived in Nameoki Township more than 60 years. He graduated from Granite City High School, and participated in certificate programs at Chicago University, Washington University and Southern Illinois University. In addition, he is an honorably discharged Navy veteran.

He is of the Methodist faith. He holds membership in Masonic Lodge 835, Scottish Rite Bodies, Almad Shrine, the Granite City Board of Realtors and is treasurer of the National Association I.F.A. He and his wife, Mary (Fehrman) Jeffries, have four children.

Granite City

Varadian unopposed

Jake Varadian, 46, is running unopposed in his bid for reelection as alderman of the Fifth Ward. Born in St. Louis, Varadian has lived in Granite City for 46 years.

He currently is employed as a teacher in Granite City School District 9. He was formerly employed as a steelworker and previous to that was self-employed.

Varadian attended local schools, and is a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he earned a bachelor of science degree.

He is a member of the St. Gregory Armenian Apostolic Church, Prather Elementary PTA and the Lincoln Athletic Club.

Besides serving as alderman, he formerly served several terms as precinct committeeman.

Varadian said he thinks the major campaign issues include solving the sewer break problem, attracting new industry and business to Granite City, devising a suitable plan for annexation of outlying areas, increasing ward opportunities in representation for the selection of city jobs, improving the image of Granite City, following through and completing designated projects and providing a plan for the rehabilitation of the downtown area.

Varadian, his wife Barbara Jean, and two sons, John and Jake, reside at 1744 Olive St.

Officials discuss options to alleviate flooding in township

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

Although no formal agreements were made, Nameoki Township officials and Metro-East Sanitary District (MESD) Board members met Tuesday night to discuss options to alleviate flooding in the township.

Greathouse spoke to the Nameoki Town Board of Trustees during a meeting of the trustees Monday night. Trustee Helen Hawkins had requested that Greathouse appear to discuss the participation of the levy district in alleviating flooding in the township.

In a letter to the trustees and Greathouse, Mrs. Hawkins suggested that MESD take responsibility for the operation and utility costs involved in operating a well in the Dobrey Slough. Such a well was temporarily installed and tested last January by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The well, installed between Hemlock Avenue and Pine Street, was able to "draw" water from ground water level by 700 gallons per minute, resulting in a drop of one foot at one monitoring point. The well was used to pump underground water into the Dobrey Slough and channel it to a pump station located at the end of the slough near Pontoon Road. That pump station automatically activates when the water level in the slough rises, pulling water into pipes leading to the Nameoki ditch. From there, the water empties into Horseshoe Lake.

Mrs. Hawkins noted that, although the well was only used temporarily, "We saw that it really worked. It was only a test, but I'd like to see someone take that on." She suggested that a grant may be obtained to fund the operation of the well.

SHE ALSO suggested that zoning and land officials cooperate in protecting the township against developments in flood-prone areas of the lowlands.

"The help of the Metro-East Sanitary District, the state of Illinois, the city of Granite City, Nameoki Township and the Army Corps of Engineers is needed to provide a solution to the American Bottoms flooding," she concluded. "A final solution, not stop-gap remedies, is long overdue."

Greathouse began his address to the board of trustees by emphasizing the responsibilities of MESD. "We keep our nose out of other things that we're not responsible for. We don't owe a dime right now because we haven't spent money on all these goofy projects."

HE NOTED THAT the MESD had been approached by several persons requesting help in controlling flooding, but that no one had indicated where MESD might get the money to fund such flood-control projects.

"We can't pay for batteries stolen and shots fired into our equipment we've got out here," he said. "It took us five years to get straightened out financially. Every time there's an election, this comes up and I get called out. But we do not do things where we're not supposed to be. We don't pump water off private property. You have to get the water into our ditches. Then it's ours."

Greathouse then introduced Bruce Barker of the Illinois Department of Transportation's Division of Water Resources. Barker commented on the procedures for controlling the level of Horseshoe Lake. He noted that IDOT participated in the installation of the low flow control structure at the lake, which was installed to help draw down the lake and to allow the lake to be used for storage of flood waters.

MESD, HE CONTINUED, is responsible for opening and closing the low flow gates, but those gates are to remain closed unless MESD wishes to open them for flood control and drainage, or unless IDOT and MESD wishes to open the gates for fish and wildlife management purposes.

But Nichols, who owns property near Horseshoe Lake, told Barker that he has kept records on the lake's level for the past five or six years. "Since Nov. 1, we never have less than a six-foot level on the gauge and it's seven feet now. The gates might be open, but the water can't get out because of siltation in the lake."

"There's only one answer—dredge it out so the water can get back to the low flow gate. The Department of Conservation wants nothing to do with it."

NICHOLS ALSO suggested taking the grids away from the gate so that silt and debris could pass through the gate, but Greathouse has objected to that, saying that without the grid, the debris would end up in box culverts located underground near National City.

Greathouse told Nichols that silt in Horseshoe Lake is not a new problem.

Responding to Mrs. Hawkins' suggestion that the state take over the operation of the well in Dobrey Slough, Barker stated, "We can't be in the business of operating those projects. We install them but we don't run them."

GREATHOUSE CITED past electric bills MESD has incurred from Union Electric, noting that MESD paid $297,000 in U.E. electric bills in 1983. He said he would like to look at the well to see "what it does" and how much it may cost to operate it.

Harry Briggs told Greathouse that he currently is working with the Corps of Engineers to determine the cost of operating the well and pumping system. In addition to the cost of operating the well, he noted, officials should consider what pumping additional water from the end of Dobrey Slough may cost. MESD currently pays for the operation of the pump at the end of the slough, while Granite City is responsible for maintaining the pump.

Greathouse responded, "We won't solve the overall problem until we get someone big enough to tackle this, but the problem is so big, no one wants to tackle it."

BUT HE DID agree that stricter controls on new development in the township could help alleviate the flooding. In a related matter, Nameoki Highway Commissioner W. Lee Adams said he is working with railroad officials to obtain an easement so that culverts may be constructed on either side of the railroad tracks on Lake Drive. The culverts would be used to carry water to Highway 111 and empty into the culvert there. The board of trustees passed two requests for revenue sharing funds on file until the town board conducts its revenue sharing budget hearings. Those hearings have not yet been scheduled.

THE FIRST request was for $3,000 for the Rape and Sexual Abuse Care Center in Edwardsville.

The Arlington Civic Association requested $10,000 in revenue sharing funds to complete projects that have been registered with the township's finance committee. Association Secretary Louise Ware said the main project is obtaining city water.

TRACTOR-TRAINS? Moving refrigerated railroad cars by truck from the rail yards to the Ill-Pacific Coast Transportation Co. property in Madison as the heart of a controversy that has resulted in Gerald Moss, owner of I.P.C., filing a $3.3 million lawsuit last week against Madison's mayor, former mayor and building inspector. He is alleging a city "stop order" to cease the practice is infringing on his rights, since, Moss alleges, the reason is that he is backing an opposing candidate for mayor of Madison. City officials say the stop order was issued due to zoning violations and possibly violations of transportation rules, including road weight limits.

Venice prisoner attempts suicide

The arrest of a man in Venice earlier this week apparently resulted in his attempted suicide.

Lanny Brown, 28, of 503 Fillmore Ave., Venice, was picked up by police at 3:10 p.m. Tuesday after he allegedly shattered the window of a car owned by Molly Tyler of 714 Third St., Venice. He was charged with criminal damage to property.

ted around his neck and to the door bars.

Mosby called for another officer to assist him in getting Brown down. Police noted that when found, Brown was red in the face, but was still breathing.

Police cut Brown's jacket from the bars and removed the coat from around his neck. Brown was then laid on the floor, where he quickly opened his eyes and stood up.

Brown was brought to court and released until his court date, on the condition that he not leave his residence without one of his parents.

Four Injured in car-train collision

Four people, including two young children, were injured at 6:40 p.m. Wednesday when their auto was struck by a railroad flatcar being backed by a diesel switch engine across 21st Street, near Omaha Street.

Injured were Timothy D. Burris, 20, of 2604 Sheridan Ave., driver of the 1980 Ford auto, and three passengers, Caleb N. Burris, 4, and Joshua A. Burris, 7, both of 2833 Ralph St., and Susan Frizzell, 20, of Collinsville.

All were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where the driver was treated and released.

Joshua Burris was the most seriously hurt and was transferred to St. Louis Children's Hospital. Caleb Burris was admitted at SEMC and today was reported in good condition.

Miss Frizzell, also admitted at SEMC, was in stable condition today, according to a hospital spokesman.

Frank D. McBride, 53, of Edwardsville, was operating the switch engine which was moving north toward 21st Street.

Burris was heading east on 21st Street and was crossing the five sets of railroad tracks leading into the Granite City Steel plant when the accident occurred, he told officers.

He was traveling between five and 10 miles per hour at the time the vehicle was struck by the flatcar on the fifth set of tracks, Burris reported.

McBride told police that he was backing three flat cars north across 21st Street into Granite City Steel when the collision occurred.

The engineer said that he did not see the accident, but he reported sounding the diesel's horn prior to entering the intersection where the tracks cross the street.

An investigation into the collision is continuing.

Three candidates battle for 7th Ward post

Three candidates will vie for the Seventh Ward aldermanic position in the April election. They are Peter G. Kraus, Donald Stucke and John "Jeff" Worthen. The current Seventh Ward Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, is not running for reelection.

Peter G. Kraus

A 41-year resident of Granite City, Peter G. Kraus, 42, is employed as a supervisor at the Defense Mapping Agency AERO Space Center.

Born in Granite City, Kraus is a graduate of Southern Illinois University, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Kraus is a former employee of American Steel Industries, where he worked as a supervisor. He is a U.S. Army veteran, having served for two years.

Kraus said he thinks major campaign issues include the city's sanitary sewer breaks, the safety of children, storm water drainage, commercial zoning, increasing the tax base and strong budget control. "Over the past four years, with all our local businesses and taxpayers tightening their budgets, the city has increased its budget by 35 percent," he said. "I will work to provide better city services for less tax dollars."

Kraus and his wife, the former Ida Guitler, reside at 1716 Spring Ave.

Donald W. Stucke

Also running for Seventh Ward alderman is Donald W. Stucke, 62. Born in Mitchell, Ill., he has been a resident of Granite City for the past several years.

Stucke was educated in local schools. He is a member of the Elks Club. He formerly served as a member of the Granite City School board from 1967 through 1983.

He is currently retired. He formerly was employed as an insurance agent and a tool designer.

"The main issues affecting the Seventh Ward are the seemingly endless sewer repairs and ground-water problems," he said. "Together they have resulted in huge amounts of money being spent for repairing damage, and for preventing water from entering our homes."

"Another issue that needs attention is the neglecting of our streets. Temporary methods of street repairs are both costly and a waste of money."

Stucke and his wife, Cecelia, reside at 1613 Clark Ave. They have three daughters, Mrs. Dale (Carole) Pashea, Mrs. Steven (Janice) Hamilton, and Mrs. James (Joyce) Heller.

John "Jeff" Worthen

Challenging the other two candidates is John "Jeff" Worthen, 30, a life-long resident of Granite City. Worthen is employed as a bricklayer at Granite City Steel. He was formerly employed as vice-president of Worthen Brick Contracting Co.

He attended local schools, as well as Peru State College and Belleville Area College. He has studied courses in the field of business, construction management, real estate and computers. He currently is working toward a degree in accounting.

Worthen is of the Catholic faith and is a member of St. Elizabeth Church. He is a Third Degree member of the Knights of Columbus. The Columbus Home Association, where he is serving as treasurer, is a member of the Eagles 1126 and Bricklayers Local 65.

He currently is serving as a commissioner for the Granite City Park Board. He has been a commissioner for the past eight years and has served as the vice-president and finance committee chairman for the past five years. He is also currently serving as precinct committeeman of the 23rd Precinct.

Worthen said he thinks the major problems in the city are sewer breaks, street repairs, a storm drainage system, the high water table and a decreasing population due to a lack of employment, leading to a smaller tax base. "I believe as a prospective alderman I not only have a responsibility and commitment to the ward constituents but also to the people and businesses of this city to correct these problems," he said.

Worthen, his wife, Cynthia, and two children, Ryan and Jessica, reside at 3318 Franklin Ave.

Nameoki Township

Candidates differ on role

Whether or not Nameoki Township will have a township collector will depend on the outcome of the April 2 election. Billy R. Bridges pledges to resign from the position if elected collector, while his opponent, Stephen F. Isenburgh, plans to serve as the township's collector if elected.

Billy R. Bridges

"There is no way I would ask the Township Board of Trustees to pay me a salary," commented Billy R. Bridges about his candidacy for Nameoki Township Collector. "Therefore, if I'm elected tax collector, I will resign and save the taxpayers from paying double for the same service."

Bridges is a member of the Citizens Action Party, which supports the elimination of a local tax collector.

The 27-year-old candidate is a life-long resident of the area and currently resides at 2050 Edwardsville Road, Madison. He is employed as an inspector for Olin Brass, and a former employee of A.O. Smith Corp.

Bridges is a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Granite City. He and his wife, Nancy, have two children.

Stephen F. Isenburgh

A member of the Township Improvement Party, Stephen F. Isenburgh says he would continue local tax collections if elected township tax collector.

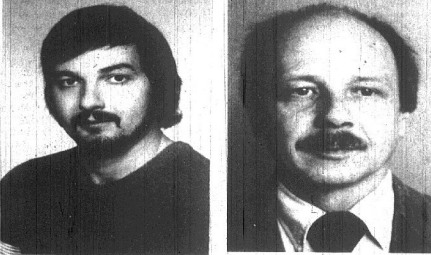

"In seeking the office of collector for Nameoki Township, I plan to (1) save taxpayers and taxing bodies tax dollars by collecting locally and dispersing weekly, (2) provide personalized service to township residents and (3) help preserve township government," Isenburgh commented.

Isenburgh, 40, of 2178 Northland Drive, was born in Peoria, Ill., but has lived in the Granite City area 17 years. He is employed as a teacher with the Granite City School District and has a bachelor of science degree from Illinois State University. He also has served as an Illinois General Assembly legislative intern for Sangamon State University.

Isenburgh is a precinct committeeman for Nameoki Township Precinct 2. He also is a member of the Nameoki United Methodist Church, Tri-Cities United Way Budget and Allocations Committee, Maryville School PTA and the American Federation of Teachers Local 740.

He and his wife, Jane, have two children.

Sectional Basketball

Warriors fall to Redbirds, end season 18-9

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER

Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
COLLINSVILLE - Deju vu.

Deju vu, almost.
For a moment Wednesday night it looked like Granite City High School's basketball team was going to win its first sectional game in 14 years.

Even when the Warriors fell behind the Alton Redbirds by 10 points, 33-23, early in the fourth quarter their fans didn't appear to be too concerned. They had confidence. For just a week ago they had seen their Warriors come back from an 11-point third-quarter deficit to beat Collinsville's Kahoks.

No sweat.

Deju vu.

AND THEN in the fourth quarter when Granite City began to work their eleventh-hour magic and whittle away at the Redbird lead it was a familiar sight. It was what Warrior pressed to match the efforts of the Redbirds' Larry Smith.

Smith, who was issued two back-to-back technical fouls early in the game for first pounding the gym floor and second for directing a comment at a referee, led all scorers with 26 points. Had the 6-foot 1-inch junior gotten another technical he would have been ejected from the game.

"Oh, that Smith," Deterding said. "What a ball player. He's super quick. They all are so quick, and that's why we lost. Their quickness and our turnovers. We must've had 20 turnovers tonight. You can't have that many turnovers and expect to win."

Deterding was right about the turnovers. The Warriors committed 20 of the "gimmies" while Alton ended the game with 14.

"Aside from the turnovers, we didn't play that poorly. It's more

"Tomorrow or the next day we'll look back on this season and have good reason to be proud. We've had a heckuva season. But right now we're still feeling the pain of defeat."

Don Deterding
Warrior basketball coach

fans had been thinking all along, never ruling out a comeback. It was reminiscent of a scene in Edwardsville's Joe E. Lucco Gymnasium the week before.

Deju vu, almost.
But not this time.

As if they had spent all their remaining strengths to catch the Redbirds, to erase the deficit amassed in the third quarter, the Warriors began their decline almost immediately after catching and momentarily passing the Redbirds.

THE FINAL outcome was a lopsided, 67-57 score favoring the Redbirds, a misleading statistic and one not representative of the closeness of the contest.

It ended Granite City's season at 18-9, the same record Alton had coming in to the game. The Redbirds, twice-regular season victims of the Warriors, have earned the right to meet Cahokia this Friday at 7:30 p.m. for the Collinsville Sectional championship. Cahokia bettered O'Fallon 55-47 Tuesday night in the other semi-final game.

THE SECTIONAL champion will advance to the Carbondale Super-Sectional this Tuesday, March 19, at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale. From there the winner is bound for Champaign.

But the Warriors won't be making that trip, not this year, anyway.

They had beaten Alton on Jan. 25 and then again on March 2, but this time things were different. Alton, said Warrior coach Don Deterding, was hungry for the win.

"It's just darn hard to beat a team three times in one season, especially a team that is as good as Alton," Deterding said.

"NOW IF we had embarrassed them the two previous times I wouldn't say that, but both games were close. Last time we played them they didn't have (6-foot 1-inch senior Jeff) Herd. This time they did, so in their minds they felt like they couldn't beat us."

Herd wasn't the difference in the ball game, though. Scoring nine points, Herd would have been hard-that they played inspired. They had the edge tonight.

"Tomorrow or the next day we'll look back on this season and have good reason to be proud. We've had a heckuva season. But right now we're still feeling the pain of defeat," Deterding said sitting on a lockerroom bench huddled low.

THEN GAME the question of the travelling calls tonight (wasn't it?) Deterding was asked by one reporter.

After pausing for a moment Deterding responded.

"I'd prefer not to comment on the officiating period."

That was it. Little more came from Deterding's lips about the game. Instead, he elected to praise Alton fans for their spirit and support during the season. "They're as great as I've ever seen them," the Warrior coach said.

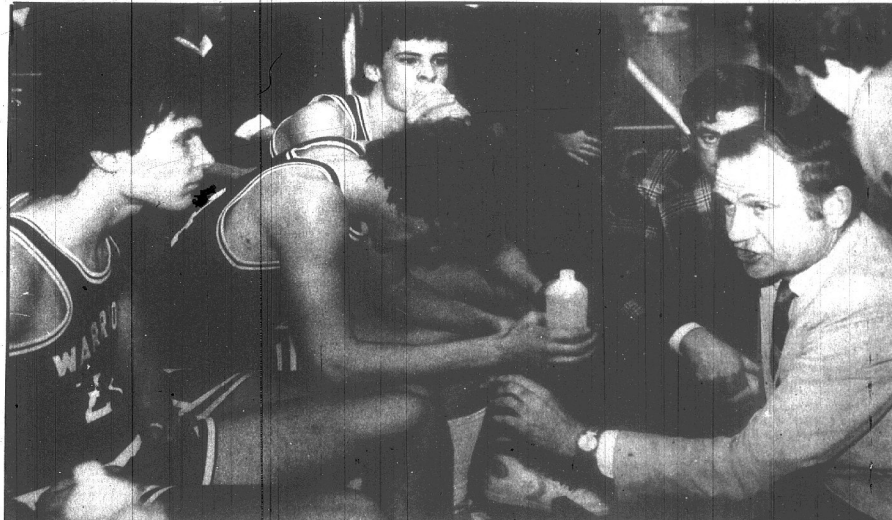

PROBABILITY the contest - excluding the final 1:15 - it was close ball game. Even when the Warriors fell behind by 10 they never really seemed out of it. And as it was later revealed, they weren't.

After the first quarter, Alton took a one-point 16-15 lead. Baskets by Don Stevanus and Kurt Hylla, who looked the best he has all season, paced the Warriors in the first stanza.

Then in the second quarter the Warriors surged, outscoring the Redbirds 16-13 to take a 31-29 halftime lead.

Jeff Gray, the Warriors' 6-foot 2-inch senior sharpshooter led all scorers at the intermission with 13 points.

DURING the third stanza the Warriors began to falter. Their passes were unsure and their shots tentative. The end result was an abundance of Warrior turnovers that resulted in breakaway drives and three slam dunks for the Redbirds. When it was over Alton turned their

Beat Flora Trojans head for Champaign

By JOE THOMPSON

CHARLESTON - Deloyd Williams stepped into his long Johns and surveyed the partisan listening audience. The Madison High Trojans hero of the hour was this minute a storyteller as he talked about what it was like out there on the floor of Lantz Gymnasium on the campus of Eastern Illinois University Tuesday night in the Illinois Class A Super-Sectional here.

This was happy time. Lockerroom chit chat. Williams tried to muster an offending look. He said he could hear announcers from a court-side table telling their audience, "Deloyd Williams is having a bad game."

Well, the whole Trojan team had not exactly shot the lights out. When 6:45 was left to play, it looked like the Trojans might be blown off the court. The score clock blinked back ugly numbers as the Trojans' feisty first year coach Rodney Watson and his players hurried: Flora 39, Madison 26.

The numbers carried a challenge. They issued a dare. Give up, Madison!

Hey... Sometime soon, maybe late Saturday night in Champaign, not 60 miles from tiny Paris where Watson was infused with the lore and love of state tournament basketball, they'll close the book on the Trojans' 1984-85 season. The last line will read, "This team never quit."

THE TROJANS made up those 13 points within all but six seconds of the time left. It was then Williams dribbled to the left of the free throw line and dropped in a 16-footer that gave the Trojans two more points and a 47-45 victory.

The triumph over Flora, which had beaten the Trojans last year in the Super-Sectional and had lost just once in 29 games before Tuesday night, sends 22-7 Madison to Champaign and the tournament quarter-finals.

"I've never been to the Elite Eight," said Watson.

THE TROJANS have, winning titles in 1977 and 1981. Madison plays, Crisman at 7:15 p.m. Friday.

Williams, the Trojans' point guard, offered no apologies for taking the game-winning shot, although Flora's fans would like to see Reggie Banks to shoot.

Victory nets wrapped around his net. Williams said Banks was covered. When he let fly his shot, Williams said he knew it was going in.

"Perfect form," he said.

Trouble was, he never got to see the shot fall.

"Reggie picked me up and started telling me he loved me," said Williams, who finished with seven points.

vice to his cagers. Despite Deterding's strategy and advice, the Warriors came up short of their Southwestern Conference foes and were eliminated from the post-season tournament.

"YEAH, I told him that," said the 6-foot 4-inch Banks with an embarrassed grin. "But don't put that in the paper."

"When he took that shot, I thought, 'Will he hit it, will he hit it,'" Banks recalled. He did see the shot drop.

"All bottoms," Banks said.

"He's a gutsy kid," said Watson of Williams. "And gee whiz."

Gee whiz was right. Now Watson is saying something else.

"There's not been one day since I've taken this job I haven't thought about going to the state tournament," he said. "You've just got to keep your sights on that goal."

"THIS CLUB isn't going to quit," Watson said. "If we were going to quit, we would've quit after Julian blew us out by 15 points. A kid forget his shoes."

What kid? "I just threw that in there," said Watson.

But the picture was clear. When Flora opened up its 13-point spread about going to the state tournament, he said, "You've just got to keep your sights on that goal."

"We had to cut into the lead a little at a time," Watson said. "There's no 12, 13-point plays. We had to chip away at it. We had enough time left."

THE TROJANS found their backs pasted to the wall when a long-time tournament friend turned against them. Their shooting touch.

The Trojans connected on just seven of 27 shots (25.9 percent success rate) in the first half and 19 of 59 for the game. They put down only two of 14 tries in the first quarter as Flora zipped to a 12-4 lead. Nathan Young's only points of the game represented the Trojans' scoring.

Even Banks, the Trojans' master marksman who had clipped the nets at a better than 65 percent rate during the year, misfired frequently. He made just six of 18 tries, but led the Trojans with 14 points, including several in Madison's stretch run.

THE TROJANS closed the gap to 21-17 in the second quarter, thanks to a swarming full-court press and spot-free shooting from Flora (three of eight).

Watson breathed a deep sigh. "I told them at the half, 'Four down is really a victory,'" Watson said. "Twenty-eight percent from that. If our kids can stay close."

The Trojans, though, lost ground. Flora surged ahead, 33-26, in the next eight minutes. When the Wolves added four points to open the fourth quarter and threatened blowout, the Trojans' battle credo never flickered.

"I told the team not to give up," Williams said. "They told me not to give up either."

Anthony Valentine, the Trojans' clutch guard, stepped forward. He started a string of five straight points with his first two baskets of the game. Reggie Young, who finished with five points, added a free throw.

FLORA answered with a bucket, but Valentine countered with his third basket. Banks continued the rally with a free throw.

Reggie Young followed with two more free throws. The Trojans trailed 42-36 with 4:22 left.

James Bennett, who tallied 10 points, scored on a three-pointer. Banks followed with a free throw to pull the Trojans to 44-41 with 3:10 remaining.

Mark Stanley closed the door tighter for the Wolves with a free throw. Bennett pried it loose with 1:31 on a basket and Banks opened it and brought the Trojans inside with a basket to even the score at 45 with 1:04 left.

A MISSED free throw by Steve Grager with 39 seconds left gave the Trojans their shot at victory.

Williams' victory launch brought cheers and tears. There was moisture underneath Banks' eyes, and rivers of joy flowed freely down the faces of cheerleaders.

Watson called Williams' "The Great Black Hope," and his arms circled him. Williams, who calls Watson "The Great White Hope" hugged back.

Just how tough did things get for Madison?

"Watson's face wrinkled in deep thought. How much time you got?"

"I THOUGHT everything would be a bed of roses, and you win all your games," Watson said the next day. "But that doesn't happen."

There are peaks and valleys. "Everybody goes through it," Watson said. "Even UCLA."

When the Trojans went through it, Watson asked former assistant coach Dave Hodges to talk with the players to lift them upward.

Watson, himself, often talked with former Madison head coach Larry Graham, whose storied success must have seemed like an unwelcome ghost during the low times.

"Every time I talked with him, sometime during the conversation, he'd say, 'You guys are going to win the state championship,'" Watson said.

Williams' eyes were hardly misty. "I cried last year," he said. "This year was my revenge."

"Just being a part of that 'E' playing on the floor, being in the tournament, knowing you are one of the eight best teams in the state," Watson said. Hey...

Golden Gloves Different roads for local boxers

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

FLORISSANT — If success is measured in championships then the three local boxers who competed here in Saturday's Golden Gloves boxing tournament in Veterans Memorial Park weren't very successful.

Each fell short of that "champion" status. But when considering more than that — more than that coveted title — each made strides during the tournament, and the boxing season for that matter, which will take them down a road which holds a brighter boxing future.

THE THREE boxers, Derek Bloodworth, Errol Collier and Dan Mendoza, are former members of the Mexican Honorarium boxing team now representing the North County (St. Louis) Boxing Club. A team which practiced locally for many years until it disbanded last year.

Bloodworth, 14, is youngest of the three local boxers who competed in the Golden Gloves Tournament. He is also the one who advanced the furthest, losing a championship bout on a split decision to Dedric Humphries of East St. Louis' Trojan Boxing Club.

For Bloodworth, an 85-pound sub-novice division boxer, this was his first Golden Gloves Tournament.

"I'M HAPPY with second place, but I feel like I really could've and should've done better. But this is my first time in the Gloves, so I guess I did alright."

"The thing that did me in was the eight-count. I don't think I was hurt. I don't think it was a very good eight-count," said the Coolidge junior high student.

The gutsy little Bloodworth was issued the standing eight-count in the first round of their three-round championship bout.

"After you're issued a count (standing eight) it's pretty tough to come back in the judges' minds. But I almost did," Bloodworth said.

Indeed he did. The judges' final scoring of the bout was split, 3-2 favoring Humphries.

COLLIER, 21, was not as fortunate to make it to the championship round. He lost his 125-pound novice quarter-final round bout to Lavelle Fingers of the 12th and Park (St. Louis) Boxing Club. This was also Collier's first Golden Gloves Tournament. From Venice, he is an engineering student at Edwardsville.

Mendoza, 24, the third and final local boxer, had, perhaps, the toughest road to travel in the annual boxing extravaganza.

A two-time Golden Gloves champion, Mendoza has not seen a lot of ring action this season, carding just two bouts before his first Golden Gloves match.

AND, says Mendoza, that lack of ring time had an adverse effect on him when he entered the ring in his 165-pound open division semi-final round bout Saturday.

"I feel like I'm in the best shape ever, but nothing, even conditioning, can take the place of getting into the ring," Mendoza said.

"And, too, he's (William Guthrie) is one of the best." Guthrie, of Pop Myles' Boxing Club in East St. Louis, is favored to win the 165-pound open division. A member of the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team, Guthrie is ranked No. 2 in the nation at 165 pounds.

FROM THE beginning of their bout, Guthrie's ring experience was evident. Wasting little time in scoring in the first round, Guthrie put together more than one flurry of punches in each round.

Mendoza, however, was not to be taken lightly. The former Gloves champion landed his share of punches, but on more than one occasion found himself pinned against the ropes by Guthrie's flurries.

"He's tough. Very tough," Mendoza said of Guthrie after the bout. "He's very smooth. His punches come at you at an instant, stealth-like."

"He has a good arsenal of punches and as far as putting together combinations, he does that as well as anyone I've faced," Mendoza said showering Guthrie with compliments.

When it came Guthrie's turn, he was less praising.

"THIS IS the first time we've met and honestly I thought he'd be a little tougher than he was. I had heard about Danny and I've got to say I was expecting him to be tougher. It was a good warmup for me for the championship," a confident Guthrie said.

"Sparring with other Olympic boxers helps me out immensely," Guthrie said. "I get a lot of good practice and that helps keep me sharp. I understand Danny didn't think that he got enough sparring."

The three local may even take different directions now. Bloodworth, who thanked former MHC coach Mercie Mendoza for his help in training, says he hopes to be training back in Granite City next year.

"IT'S GO where I have to go to train, but I understand that we're trying to get back to Granite City. I'd be nice to be back home," Bloodworth said.

As for Collier, he's making "great strides" in boxing, said Mercie Mendoza who saw him for the first time after an absence at the Golden Gloves Tournament Saturday night.

"He's really coming on," Mendoza said of Collier. "He seems to be retaining more of his training than he was initially."

As for Danny Mendoza, his boxing road may take him toward a professional standing.

"I talked about it last year, but didn't," Mendoza said after his bout about turning pro. "I think it's time now to do it. To go for it."

Whatever road each of them take, you can bet that each one will take the one that leads to Kiel Auditorium Saturday night for the Golden Gloves championships. Action begins at 7:30 p.m.

Basketball Regional Unsympathetic Tigers down girls

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — "The only place you'll find sympathy is in the dictionary," — quote loosely attributed to Gen. George E. Custer at the Battle of the Little Bighorn.

The girls basketball team of Granite City High discovered this also applies in their sport. The girls suffered through an 80-35 loss to Edwardsville Monday night at the Class AA Regional tournament.

The Tigers, however, saved their biggest cheer for their final point, a free throw by Denise Isenberg with 16 seconds left to play.

WHEN THE shot fell through, the Tigers exploded in a bedlam of noise and cheer.

"I think their coaches were cheering for it, too," retiring Granite City Coach Gordon Galbreath said. "All year we've hit 78, 79 but never 80," Tigertette Coach Dave Tisser explained.

The Tigers improved their record to 19-5 to advance in the tournament. The Warriors finished 3-19.

The Tigers earned their 80 points by playing an aggressive, full-court press throughout the contest. The press, skillfully executed, forced the Warriors into 27 turnovers, 14 alone in the first quarter when Edwardsville roared to an 18-6 lead and set a full throttle tempo they maintained.

"IT'LL TELL you what happened. They improved their man to man quite a bit. They stuck close to us," Galbreath said, leaping against a reporter to emphasize his point.

Of course, I thought they fouled a lot," he said.

The Warriors' finale marked the last game for seniors Debbie Brandt and Robyn Morlen. Brandt left her mark with a team high 14 points.

Junior center Loretta Cox tossed in six points. She scored a career high 24 in the Warriors final regular season game the previous outing wearing her "lucky" maroon-colored shoes. She left the shoes home Monday.

Employ Older Worker Week marked

Governor James R. Thompson has proclaimed this as "Employ the Older Worker Week" in Illinois.

"The State of Illinois joins the nation in recognizing the observance, which was initiated by the American Legion 26 years ago," said the governor.

"The superior performance and continued dependability of older workers have made them an invaluable resource to their employers, as well as to their fellow workers."

Illinois Department of Aging Director Janet S. Otwell joined the governor in recognition of the week.

"The Illinois Department of Aging advocates the employment of older workers not only because they have so many excellent skills to offer, but also because they are finding an ever-increasing need to remain in the paid work force," she said.

"An example of a program that addresses the needs of older workers is the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP). Federally funded through the Department of Labor, SCSEP provides part-time employment opportunities for persons 55 and over who have limited income."

"The program currently employs over 2,500 seniors who are working in hospitals, schools, libraries and social service agencies throughout the State," Director Otwell said.

In Illinois, SCSEP is administered through the Illinois Department on Aging and seven national contractors, including the American Association of Retired Persons, Green Thumb, Inc., National Association of Hispanic Elderly, National Caucus on the Black Aged, National Council of Senior Citizens, National Urban League and the U.S. Forest Service.

Mrs. Otwell said that in celebration of Employ the Older Worker Week, the department and national contractors, along with the American Legion, area Agencies on Aging, Department of Veterans Affairs and Illinois Job services hosted an SCSEP awards luncheon Wednesday in Springfield.

FILE TWO CHARGES

Gary R. Caughron, 23, of 4734 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, was charged this week with illegal transportation of alcohol and driving while his license was suspended. He was arrested while slumped over the steering wheel of his auto in the alley between the 4100 and 4200 blocks of the Kirkpatrick Homes, with the keys in the ignition switch, reports said.

Matthew 28:19 "... Go ye therefore, and teach all nations." This command is given to the Christian community. And it is given by Jesus Christ or commander. It must be carried out in obedience.

The church must be aggressive. We must go and teach. Believers must teach Christ to unbelievers. When you come to understand that there is, "None other name given under heaven whereby man must be saved," you will understand the sense of urgency.

Contrary to appearances, churches are not competing against each other. No church can save your soul. Salvation of the soul belongs to God alone. Christ is the way, the truth, and the life, and no man comes unto the Father but by him.

By learning this great truth, your life will be greatly blessed!

A Note From Our President

From the desk of:
Paul F. Sodko

As a CPA who specialized in tax accounting, I want to personally recommend the IRA (Individual Retirement Account) to you.

Whether or not you choose to place your IRA with us at Madison County Federal, this account can form the basis for your sound retirement program. Most financial advisers will be able to show you how your monies will double every six or seven years. The government has provided a dual tax incentive for taxpayers electing IRA savings programs. First, your IRA contributions are deductible from gross earnings when computing your current tax and second, interest earnings on your IRA are deferred until you begin making withdrawals at retirement when you will probably be in a lower tax bracket.

You have until you file your 1984 tax return (up to April 15, 1985) to take advantage of the 1984 tax savings aspects of your Individual Retirement Account. However, the sooner you open or add to your IRA, the quicker you earn interest to help your retirement account grow.

Again, as a financial counselor, let me urge you to make IRA a part of your saving-investment portfolio, somewhere — soon. Thank you for your interest and consideration.

Sincerely,

Paul F. Sodko

Granite City BPW program to focus on issues management

The Granite City Business and Professional Women will hold its March dinner meeting on Wednesday, March 20th, at Charlie's Restaurant, at 6:30 p.m.

Issues Management will be the topic discussed with club member Jeanne Hornberger giving a presentation on highlights from the National Leadership Conference held recently at the Holiday Inn in Collinsville.

The National Federation Focus for 1985-86 will be on four issues. They steer BPW toward the future while reaffirming concern with the workplace. The four issues are: economic self-sufficiency, comparable worth/pay equity, employer responsiveness to the needs of working women, and the high-tech future, Joyce Bennington explained.

Each of the four issues involves "environment," whether economic, social, or technological. BPW/USA deals with its environment and implements these issues on the national level through lobbying, publications, media coverage, meetings and conferences, she added.

Mrs. Bennington, president, extends an invitation to all working women in the Quad-City area to attend. For reservations call Joyce at 876-2224 or Lil Marzluft at 452-1337.

The Gateway Business and Professional Women's Organization will hold its first "Public Relations" dinner meeting at Buck and Jan's Den, 24th and State streets, Monday, March 18, starting with a cocktail hour at 5:30 p.m.

Shirley Adams, BPW public relations chairman, announced the guest speaker will be veteran radio personality Bob Baker, station manager at WGN Radio.

Representatives of area newspapers, including the Granite City Press-Record, Granite City Journal and Press-Record/Journal, and others from WGN Radio also will be recognized.

A St. Patrick's Day theme will prevail throughout the evening, Mrs. Adams said. A buffet dinner, featuring corned beef and cabbage, fried chicken, herosardish mousses, salads and green-mint cheesecake, among other dishes.

ALL ARES WORKING women and the public are being invited to attend. Reservations, costing $12 per person, can be made by calling Lillian Naeve, between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. at 451-9959, or 452-9467, after 3 p.m.

The guest speaker began his radio career in 1944 as a disc-jockey at WTMV, located in the Broadview Hotel in East St. Louis.

At that time, there were only eight or 10 radio stations in the St. Louis bi-state region, compared to about 30 stations today.

AL STEVENS, who adopted the stage name Bob Baker after becoming a radio announcer, joined the staff of WGN in 1962 as a news department announcer. Shortly thereafter, he was appointed station manager by Chuck Norman, WGN owner and president.

Baker was born in Chicago, but has resided in Granite City most of his life.

HIS GRANDFATHER, A. W.

Stevens, came here in 1892, and the Stevens family has since evolved into one of the area's best-known pioneer political families.

Currently heard over WGN's "Party Line" from 4 p.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, Baker also is the primary news anchor on the 3 p.m., 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. newscasts each weekday.

At Monday night's dinner, Baker will reflect upon the events of his 40 years in radio broadcasting, a period in which he has interviewed many noteworthy political figures and numerous show business personalities.

HIS WIFE, JERRY, owns and operates the Jerry Green Dance Studio in Granite City, and their son, Al Stevens III, is a disc jockey at Radio Station WIL-FM and teaches broadcasting at the Broadcast Center in Cayton, Mo.

Baker also is a member of the First Presbyterian Church choir in Granite City. Reservations are requested by Sunday, Mrs. Adams said.

Old Six Mile Society hears Leo Schermer

Leo Schermer, a Madison businessman, spoke at the March meeting of the Old Six Mile Historical Society, presenting a history of the Schermer family from before 1898 through today as well as a historical review of the city of Madison in relation to the same era.

Members of the society and guests gathered for the informative session at Central Christian Church, 220 Johnson Road.

Schermer told of his father, Herman, who was born in Austria the son of Jewish parents and was the oldest of eight children.

The family raised horses and cattle to make a living. Twice a year they would take their animals to Budapest to be sold. They also raised poultry and flax. Because they were of the Jewish faith they did not eat pork so they extracted a yellowish oil from the flaxseed and used it as a spread on their bread.

In the winter Herman and his brother, Ben, would go into the mountains and cut wood which was made into charcoal and sold to the railroads.

Schermer said that his father lived a good life in Austria under Emperor Francis Joseph until the 1890's when relations with Prussia and Hungary would lead to war.

Herman's parents decided he should go to America. In 1898, with the money Herman received from the sale of two coils, he went to Rotterdam and set sail for Philadelphia, where he lived with an uncle for a short time.

He then went to Chicago, where he worked in a shoe factory and received $5 a week. After he saved enough money to buy a horse and wagon, he began to buy scrap iron which he sold to the steel mills in Indiana.

In 1902, he came to St. Louis, where he found employment at the St. Louis World's Fair site. One year later, he met a man from Austria by the name of Arnovitz. The two friends opened a store in West Madison. During the flood of 1903, they lost everything they worked for in that area.

After the water went down, Herman walked to E. St. Louis and borrowed $500 to open another store in Madison. This was the same location, where the Schermer Store is located today.

By this time, his brother, Ben, had come to America, to be followed by brothers Adolph and Joe. By 1909 his mother and the other sons arrived in America.

All the boys attended the Madison Schools. Jacob, the youngest was one of seven students who comprised the first graduating class of Madison High School on May 25, 1915. Emmanuel Arnovitz, another graduate of this class and Jacob Schermer attended medical school and became prominent doctors in the Tri-Cities.

All the Schermer men worked on civic projects. Ben organized the Cahokia Scout Council, 65 years ago.

One of the philanthropists of this time was Clarence Howard of the Commonwealth, later known as General Steel Industries. He donated 120 acres at Ironton, Mo., which was used as a Boy Scout Camp, called Camp Rankin.

Schermer gave an interesting history of Madison. It was a village of male immigrants from the Balkan countries who came to work in the Car Shop.

Herman married Helen Friedman. She told her children how she was awakened on the first morning in her new home by a very loud noise. She discovered the loud noise was the sound of 500 men walking on the wooden sidewalks to the car shop. These men could not speak English. Dora Ashley opened a school at a Presbyterian Mission on 13th Street, to help them learn to speak, read and write English and prepared them to get their citizen papers.

The men slept in small boarding houses in three eight-hour shifts. As many as 30 men would sleep in a three room house. More than 300 men slept in a four story building on State and Sixth Street.

The year of 1916 was a year of depression, and in Madison meant the closing of the car shop.

The Friedman's had a dance hall and a saloon, and the doors were open to these men. They picked up coal that had fallen off the coal cars along the railroad tracks to heat the dance hall. Then they bought soup bones to cook soup. Everyone helped each other.

By 1917, the men were again working at the Car Shop. Many of them married and settled in different locations in Madison, according to their nationalities and built ethnic churches.

The guest speaker compared his school days with the schools of today. When he was in the second grade, there were 40 students from the ages of 7 to 18 in the basement of the Russian Church. When he graduated from the eighth grade there were 80 students in two rooms. He said they all learned to read, write and spell and all graduated. It was a wonderful era to grow up in, he added.

Roberta Crawford served as chairman of the refreshment committee assisted by Paula Travis and Florence Simpson.

The next meeting of the society will be held on April 1 at the Central Christian Church. The speaker will be Dorothy Michel Geroff, who will speak about memories in the area. The public is invited to attend the session to begin at 7 p.m.

Mid American Dance Company concert set at SIUE

Three alumni of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will return to the campus to perform in the Mid American Dance Company (MAD/CO) concert tomorrow, at 8 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

Joseph Mills, Kathleen Waller and Elizabeth Webb, all of whom studied their art at the university, are now members of the St. Louis region's only resident professional dance company.

THEY WILL dance in a program involving "a fine kettle of odd fish, ubiquitous pieces of silver, and raggedly-clad characters," in the four dances scheduled for performance at the SIUE event.

"Irregular Fish" is the opening number. The first part explores the abstract movements of graceful fish in the water; but the mood shifts when a school of "shoo-by-doo-wah" high-style types surfaces. The choreography is by Suzanne Grade.

"Silver," the second piece, has been described as "lustrous" and "glitzy." It is performed to two jazz saxophone compositions by Jack DeJohnette. MAD/CO's artistic director, Ross Winter, choreographed the work. "Lunch with Jan," choreographed by Jon Manlove, is described as "a cumulative reflection of his dealing with the opposite sex—food for thought, expressed in dance, at any meal."

"SNIPS" is a suite of brief dances, each flowing into the next, yet complete within itself, featuring energetic variations on "Swanee River." It is choreographed by Jill Eathorne Barr and Victoria Uris of Uris/Barr Dance Company of New York City.

"Other Realities," which premiered two years ago at SIUE and has since become an audience favorite, is the finale on the program. Ross Winter's dance "inhabits a mysterious forest in a primordial past or a mute future" where a shining silver tree is draped with nets "like mutant webs or iridescent Spanish Moss," according to the choreographer. It has received considerable critical acclaim.

The MAD/CO group is composed of Allison Green, Jon Manlove, Joseph Mills, Paul Mosely, Kathleen Waller and Elizabeth Webb.

TICKETS FOR the concert are $7 for general admission and $4.50 for older adults. Group rates for older adults are available. For reservations or information, interested persons may call 1-314-664-2631.

Financial assistance for this concert has been provided by the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency.

Regional mathematics contest set Saturday

More than 400 students from 20 schools will participate in the regional level of the Illinois High School Mathematics Contest on Saturday, March 16, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Paul Phillips, professor of mathematics at SIUE, will coordinate the competition; students will compete both as individuals and as members of teams representing their schools. There will be two categories: Class A, consisting of schools with fewer than 750 students; and Class AA, those with more than 750 students.

ORGANIZED BY the Illinois Council of Teachers of Mathematics (ICTM), with financial support from the CNA Insurance Companies, the state-wide event involves 262 schools at 17 regional sites. This represents an increase of 16 schools over last year's turnout.

The winners will advance to the state final in May. Competition is open to students in grades 9 through 12 in six different events, from oral presentations to calculator and team competition. Questions will test skills in factoring, logarithms, inequalities, logical reasoning and creative analysis used in algebra through calculus.

Plaques and ribbons will be presented to individuals and schools with the best scores in both Class A and AA categories, based on accuracy and speed. The awards ceremony is set for 1:30 p.m. at SIUE on the day of the examination.

SCHOOLS ENTERED in the SIUE regional include:

Class A: Gibault (Waterloo), Highland, Lebanon, Red Bud, Sparta, Waterloo, Weslin (Trenton), Lit-chfield, Governor French Academy (Belleville), and Auburn.

Class AA: Murphysboro, Belleville East, Belleville West, Civic Memorial (Bethalto), Collinsville, Lincoln (East St. Louis), Edwardsville, Granite City, Jacksonville and Jersey Community (Jerseyville).

The ICTM competition is open to any high school math teachers who wish to observe, Phillips said. For additional information, interested persons may contact Professor Phillips at 1-692-2382.

BREAK SCHOOL WINDOW
Nothing appeared to be missing from Wilson School, where a patrolling officer saw four youths near a window in the physical education equipment room last week. Upon investigation, the window was found to be broken and a larger window above the first had been pushed inward.

VANDAL SMASHES DOOR
Upon returning to her apartment after a 30-minute absence last week, Barbara Booker, 2511 Grand Ave., found that someone had smashed in the door, destroying the frame, and also jerked a telephone from the wall.

WE'RE SOLD ON YOUR HOUSE BEFORE WE SELL IT.

Our theory is simple. We take the time to know your house, price it correctly, and discover its distinctive features. Because when we're sold on it, it's much easier to find the right buyers and close the sale.

Then, we even save you time after the sale by helping with the time-consuming paperwork. It's all a matter of spending your time wisely so it doesn't waste yours. This is another reason why CENTURY 21 helps more people buy or sell their homes than any other real estate organization in the world.
